DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4, 6-9 and 11 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-4, 6-9 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either one of Soma et al or Maier et al in view of Spearin et al (5,620,513) The above claims are readable on either patent to Soma et al or Maier et al with the single exception of applying a film or coating of a solid or liquid lubricating material to an exterior surface of a steel strip. The patent to Spearin et al teaches the above exception. In view of the teaching of Spearin et al, it would be obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to provide the above exception to element 27 of Maier et al or element 40 of Soma et al, if desired. Note that the type of lubricant material used such as oil is a matter of design expedient in view of the teaching of a liquid coating or film of lubricating material. Also, whether the outer surface is a roughened surface is a matter of obvious design expedient.

Art Unit: 3753

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 10 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 12-20 are allowed.
